AVIATION AND BRAZIL AN INTRODUCTION

Aviation in Brazil started in 1910 and being a continental country (over 8.5 million sq.km.) Brazil is highly dependent on aviation. The size of the country and the precariousness of other means of transport made commercial aviation expand exponentially.

WHAT ATTRACTS TOURISTS TO BRAZIL

Most of the inbound travelers come especially from Argentina, the United States and Europe (Portugal, Italy, UK, France, Spain, and others). This is largely because Brazil waived the need for visas from these countries, but the list of countries that do not need a visa to come to Brazil is quite extensive.

According to MTur, Ministry of Tourism, the main reason for looking at Brazil as an international tourist destination is the performance of activities related to leisure. Other factors were visiting friends and relatives, business, events, and conventions among other reasons.

AGENTS' CORNER

How do I make payment for an online booking?

TAAG allows online payments with credit card (Visa and Mastercard) and MultiCaixa. The 'book now, pay later' (Multicaixa) payments are allowed only in Angola though.

If I need to carry an extra suitcase, how can I do it?

You can purchase an extra luggage in advance or at the airport on the day of your travel. The cost at the airport is higher than in advance.

Once I make an economy class booking, can I upgrade? How can I do that? How much does it cost?

Yes, you can pay the difference to upgrade your ticket, but it will depend on the seat and fare availability.
