FEATURED AIRLINE: INTERCARIBBEAN AIRWAYS

interCaribbean Airways is a regional airline headquartered in the Turks and Caicos Islands. Established in 1991 as Interisland Airways, the business was rebranded (twice) before becoming interCaribbean Airways in 2013 as it pursued new opportunities across the Caribbean. A loyalty program, Cacique Rewards, was added in 2015. In 2019, interCaribbean added jet services, allowing for more longer and faster flights across the Caribbean. Currently, the airline services 28 cities in 17 countries using a growing fleet of 20 aircraft. Destinations include Barbados to the east, and Guyana to the south.

AGENT'S CORNER

Book seamless connections ex-UK

interCaribbean has an interline agreement with British Airways to offer seamless connectivity and baggage through check-in on flights ex-UK.

JY's partnership with BA is ideal for pax who want a one-stop connection to destinations such as Tortola, Dominica, or Guyana from the UK.

Other connectivity options are available with Virgin Atlantic and Aer Lingus, with more to follow.

JY adds credit card to GDS pay options

Agents can now use credit card as a form of payment for any new JY booking made via agency GDS displays.

The first agent to send the correct answer and their full name and agency details will win a £25 Amazon gift voucher.

WIN A GIFT VOUCHER

What destination in the Caribbean inspired the name of interCaribbean's loyalty programme, Cacique Rewards?

Hint: The word cacique refers to the tribal chief from a particular island. Tell us which island and you could be a winner!
