FEATURED AIRLINE: INDIGO

Low-cost airline IndiGo was launched in 2006 and has grown rapidly into the largest airline in India in terms of fleet size and passenger numbers. It offers widespread connectivity across India and continues to add new regional and long-haul routes, such as Nairobi in Kenya and Jakarta in Indonesia. IndiGo has ordered a staggering 500 additional Airbus aircraft to meet its future network requirements. The airline has also recently entered into a codeshare agreement with Turkish Airlines, giving its network even more reach.

Let IndiGo's widespread network inspire you

Cayman Airways ups USA flights

As of November, Cayman Airways has added an additional flight to Los Angeles (LAX) to Grand Cayman (GCM) on a Wednesday.

IndiGo adds Nairobi and Jakarta to its network

IndiGo has introduced non-stop flights from Istanbul, Nairobi and Jakarta to Mumbai with connections to some of the most remote corners of India. With these latest routes, IndiGo now services at least 32 international destinations and 82 domestic destinations.

... and introduces 'anytime boarding' service

IndiGo has integrated its Fast Forward (FFWD) and Priority Boarding services at airports and introduced a new 'anytime boarding' option. Passengers' luggage will arrive with all other customers' baggage, and the carrier will also still give pax the option of priority check-in. Customers who have already purchased FFWD will be notified of the change via e-mail. IndiGo said the reason for the change would help to simplify its offerings and provide one product that combined check-in and boarding benefits for the convenience of its customers.
