HISKY (H4)

Privately owned Romanian airline HiSky operates scheduled flights (and charters) from its various bases in Romania and the Republic of Moldova. Having established an exciting mix of business and leisure routes into Europe since 2021, HiSky introduced its first non-stop flights to the USA in 2023. With a modern fleet and excellent ground and in-flight services, HiSky is looking to grow its business and traffic on intercontinental flights with well-timed connections to places like Tel Aviv.

AGENT'S CORNER

Since August, HiSky offers online check-in via its website 72 hours before flights depart.

- HiSky launched as a full-service carrier with pricing based on the low-cost principle. That means the best fares for your customers and optional additional services and ancillaries. There are five service packages each with its own benefits: Basic, Classic, Premium, Premium Plus, and Business, allowing you to tailor the customer's travel experience.
- HiSky operates from three main bases: Bucharest and Cluj-Napoca (Romania) and Chisinau (Republic of Moldova).
- Since launching in 2021, HiSky has flown more than four million passengers.

NEWS AND EVENTS

Will Canada be HiSky's next long-haul route?

HiSky has ambitions to add another transatlantic route to its network, with approvals to launch non-stop flights to Canada already in the bag.

In April, HiSky confirmed it had received the necessary license from the country's transport agency to begin operating regular flights to Canada.

Get your customers to Tel Aviv on HiSky

HiSky offers convenient connections from New York's John F. Kennedy Airport (JFK) to Tel Aviv's Ben Gurion International Airport (TLV) via Bucharest. The connection is available twice weekly on Mondays and Saturdays between JFK and Tel Aviv and on Thursdays and Sundays between Tel Aviv and JFK.

Service is also available between Timisoara (TSR) in western Romania and Tel Aviv (via OTP).

"Representing HiSky in the US marks an exciting new chapter for us," said Shreyas Nanavati, CEO of AirlinePros International. "We are eager to offer our industry knowledge to highlight the airline's unique destinations and expand their reach in this dynamic travel landscape. We look forward to improving HiSky's visibility and contributing to their growth in the US."
